Francis J. Bopp Announces For Sheriff & Tax Coll.

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of Francis J. Bopp for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County, Miss., subject to the action of the Democratic Primary. Mr. Bopp's statement follows: TO THE VOTERS OF HANCOCK COUNTY Please consider this, as my formal announcement as a candidate for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County in the Democratic Primary Election to be held August 7th, 1951. I was not born in the State of Mississippi, which was no fault of mine.

In 1913 I made my choice and moved to Hancock County, and since then, I have been a citizen, resident and taxpayer of Hancock County. The records will verify this statement. From the year of 1913 to 1936 I commuted daily and earned my money outside of Hancock County, but spent it in Hancock County. I have reared my family in Hancock County and educated them at our local schools. During January 1936, I became Chief Deputy Sheriff and Tax Collector, and fulfilled that position until December 1943. I think the taxpayers will remember the efficient service they received.

From January 1943 to the present time I have been connected with the Chancery Clerk's Office in handling the financial records of Hancock County. At the present time, I am also the Auditor for the City of Bay St. Louis. Under the laws of 1950, all cities in Mississippi are required to employ a Competent Auditor, and to file an annual report with the State Department of Audit.

Before entering an agreement with me as City Auditor, the City Commission inquired of the Hon. Carl W. Craig, State Auditor, if my appointment would meet with his approval. His reply to said letter appears on the City of Bay St. Louis Minute book 7, page 18 and reads as follows:

Mr. J. Cyril Glover
P. O. Box 310
Bay St. Louis, Mississippi
Dear Mr. Glover:
In answer to letter of October 2 referring to Francis J. Bopp, will say that his appointment as City Auditor will be entirely satisfactory with this office. In fact, this office thinks well of Mr. Bopp as an auditor.

With personal regards
Sincerely yours
(Signed) Carl W. Craig
State Auditor

In fact handling of office records is the only occupation I have had during my life.

In reference to the duties of the Sheriff and Tax Collector, I will state from personal knowledge as follows:

RECEIVES COMMISSION AS SECOND LIEUTENANT

Tyson McMahon, husband of the former Aubre Robertson, received his commission as Second Lieutenant in ceremonies at Marine Corps Officer's Candidate School in Quantico, Va., on Wednesday, May 30. Lt. McMahon was chosen amongst the 60 percent of 500 that were selected for the screening course. This is considered an honor since the course is an intensive one, consisting of rigid training. Lt. McMahon was additionally honored by being chosen to deliver the Valedictorian speech at the exercises.

The young officer originated in Fort Smith, Arkansas and attended Tulane where he majored in business administration and commerce and then he emerged to take further studies at New Orleans. He is a Kappa Sigma. In the last war Lt. McMahon served three years in the Pacific area and then upon his return entered Tulane again for refresher courses.

Young Harris Robertson will drive his sister, Mrs. McMahon to Quantico sometime next week to visit her husband for about two months. At a later date Mrs. Mary G. Robertson, Mrs. McMahon's mother, will fly to Quantico, accompanied by small Timmy McMahon, who will join his parents for the remainder of the visit.

MRS. WALTER HAVA ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Walter Hava entertained at her home in Waveland on Wednesday, May 23, at a luncheon. The home was decorated with quantities of lilies from the picturesque garden which is the hobby of Dr. Hava. On the luncheon table was an unusual arrangement of guests. After luncheon the guests retreated to the patio where canasta was enjoyed. Mrs. L. T. Boyd and Mrs. Roy L. Dennis were presented with leather wallets for having high score. Guests enjoying Mrs. Hava's hospitality, in addition to Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Dennis were Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab, Mrs. Paul Kimbrell, Mrs. J. Charles Breaud, Mrs. George Stevenson, Mrs. Gerald Kennedy, Sr.

MRS. L. T. BOYD ENTERTAINS

In a series of small parties being given by Mrs. L. T. Boyd six guests were entertained at the Boyd home last Tuesday and an additional number will be entertained on Thursday. On the luncheon table Tuesday, Mrs. Boyd chose lilies, hydrangeas and daisies for an attractive centerpiece.

This office collects more than $225,000 each year in taxes and licenses, which is about 50% of the entire income of Hancock County. The collections should be accurate so that each tax payer pays the correct tax on his assessment, for the following reasons: Very few taxpayers check their receipts to see if the descriptions of the property is correct and also the amount of tax. In some cases property tax has not been collected for, and when it was discovered, the property has accumulated unnecessary expenses or may have sold for unpaid taxes. When the tax settlements are made into the depository, care should be taken to see that the proper fund receives the correct amount, otherwise the various budgets of the County and Schools can not be carried out. If I am elected there will be a system to collect taxes so the tax payer will not waste their time in paying their taxes. As I am an independent candidate, you can be assured that I will not be controlled by any one, but at all times I will be willing to assist in anything that will help the people of Hancock County.

After considering the foregoing facts, and if in your opinion, you think that I am qualified and vote for me, I assure you with the help of God, I will do my best for a successful administration, so that all our folks of Hancock County will be satisfied. I am Sincerely yours, FRANCIS J. BOPP

Candidate for Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County

Hillier, Mr. and Mrs. Pass Christian; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. John McNeil, Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Hor-nuff, Mr. and Mrs. Tom C. King, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ratenberg, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. H. Reasch, Mrs. J. William Hill, Jr., Mrs. Jules Schroth, Mrs. Ernest Samuel, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Samuel, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Robin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scharif, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Spence, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carter and Mr. and Mrs. M. Drury Blair, and Miss Jean Blair, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duquequier, Mrs. Georg Lehlteiner, Mr. and Mrs. J. Charles Breaud, Mr. and Mrs. S. Patrick Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kergison, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Gez, Mrs. Wilson Wittlesberger, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Farrelly, Mr. and Mrs. Eduard Carriere, Mr. and Mrs. Walter James Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gez, president of the Auxiliary, wished to thank all those who took part in this affair and to express her appreciation for the generous donations. Mrs. Gez has issued a statement that plans for the wading pool, which is the next project on the Auxiliary's list, are in progress. This organization has done much good with the funds it raises for such affairs as teen-age entertainment, an annual Christmas party for small children and grandchildren of members, the purchase of a double deep-freeze unit, which has been paid for, two pedestal fans for the club and the intention of purchasing two more.

Mrs. Ernest Allgeyer announces that the cook book which has been compiled by the members of the Auxiliary is now on sale. It is an attractive book, containing many valuable and original recipes contributed by members and their friends. The book will make an unusual gift and every housewife will want one on her book-shelf. It sells for $5. Anyone wishing to purchase one of these books will please contact Mrs. Allgeyer. The bar at the club has been moved to the smaller dining room facilitating better service and more space. The change is an improvement and the room is attractive as well as cool.

Added to the cast of "The Silver Whistle" is one of the players of the Little Theatre, Mrs. Marie Blair. Mrs. Blair will star the part of a deaf, highly insatiable epileptic. Her feeling for the part enables her to do it in a manner which evokes spontaneous laughter at each rehearsal. Dr. Harold Kaele, a veteran in the theatre and always a willing worker, has been added to the cast as the Bishop. Reverting from a part like "Traderhorn" in the last performance to the dignified one of a Bishop, though the Bishop deviates a little from theological inclination by indulging in a little game of chance—is not a difficult feat for one with Dr. Kaele's love of dramatics. In the absence of Mr. Herbert Wise, who, unfortunately, suffered serious injuries in an automobile accident recently, Philip Allison has faithfully stepped to the front to offer his services as temporary stage manager. Those closely related to the theatre know that Mr. Allison can always be relied upon to step into any vacancy which occurs with a graciousness which is characteristic of him. C. Drury Blair will portray a priest and Walter James Phillips will also take a small part. The play is scheduled for the last week end in June. Those who enjoy comedy will find this play highly entertaining and individual. The local Little Theatre has earned recognition for fine acting and it is expected that "The Silver Whistle" will in every capacity uphold this reputation.

Work has started on enlarging the Club's harbor and pier space and in the next day or two work will begin on the painting of the Club. The Flag Room has already been moved to larger quarters and everyone seems to be happy.

J. created a few pieces of period gems and loaned them to the studio. Shortly thereafter he was operating from a large jewelry factory in Burbank.

Mrs. J. states that although the designs are indispensable to the studios, a jewel thief would glean little profit for most of the gems are fake. Still, the workmanship is of the best, employing skilled artists from all parts of the world.

Thank you, Edwina, Mogabgab, for remembering me so kindly in a recent letter to our editor. I am grateful.

ADVANCE CHECK URGED FOR POLIO

Doctor Richard A. Hartmann of Bay St. Louis pointed out today that the warm weather polio season ahead requires an advance check-up now to eliminate "subluxations which are predisposing factors to the disease."

"Our research centers are noting a strong trend toward polio which coincides with vertebral subluxations," said the local Chiropractor, in urging that spinal check-ups be made now, especially for children, so that "these predisposing factors to polio may be corrected before they have a chance to strike."

Dr. Hartmann explained that Chiropractors have adopted a slogan, "For Polio—Safety First—Chiropractic First" as part of their program to educate parents to the necessity of periodic spinal check-ups which can detect spinal subluxations which have a tendency to weaken the threshold of resistance. "Everyone has a spinal subluxation at sometime or another," said the doctor, "but it is especially important during the polio period to be sure that no major subluxations exist in children," he concluded.

MISSISSIPPI BPW WANTS WOMEN TO SERVE ON JURIES

Meridian, Miss.—The Mississippi Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs wants jury service for women on an equal basis with men. At the close of the 27th annual convention here, the federation voted that all candidates for state offices, including the legislature, be asked to express their views in writing on jury service for women.

The delegates asked for similar statements from the candidates on the question of "equal pay for women and men for comparable work and the appointment of women to policy making posts, boards and commissions."

The federation also voted to: Encourage suitable high school students to choose nursing as a career; Aid Mississippi schools to improve their standards; Support the drive for adequate equipment and proper staffing of the new medical school and to support the move to locate a new veterans hospital as an integral part of the new school; To work toward adequate enforcement; Establishment of separate traffic courts; and More stringent requirements before issuance of drivers' licenses.
